What's On This Week?

25th September 2023

Dear All,

It was great to meet so many of you at the PTC meeting this week and to speak to you either in person or virtually. Your support and welcome are greatly appreciated.

The big news that you have all been waiting for is to reassure you that Oyne Primary School will open next week as usual, in spite of industrial action. We have the capacity to open fully and I believe, that the kitchens will also be open so lunches will also be offered.

Mrs Esther Crawford started on Tuesday and Thursday of last week – do drop in and say hello if you haven't had the chance to meet her yet. Mrs Lamb will continue to work all day Monday and Wednesday but there will not be anyone manning the office on a Friday, moving forward, as we don't have the hours to justify this being a smaller school. I will try to make sure I am always at Oyne on a Friday morning in future.

We hope you are enjoying Just 2 Stars on the Just 2 Easy Platform. The children are responding really well to winning a star for upholding the school values of Respect Kindness and resilience.

It's Maths Week Scotland next week – we have lots of lovely activities lined up to make it a fun week for our pupils!

Lastly – flexi-day pupils – we will be catching up with our families who have been successfully using the guidelines, so we can firm up timetables in school for planning in classes. If anyone is considering a flex-schooling approach, everything you need to know is contained in here:
